Zack King and his band have been performing their unique brand of Texas Rock across the U.S. for over 13 years. In that time they have played with some of the most illustrious superstars in rock and country music. They kicked off their career opening for legendary singer/ songwriter Leon Russell and have since performed with the likes of Bon Jovi, Alabama, Chris Cagle, Bret Michaels, Randy Travis, Keith Anderson, Kevin Fowler, Stone Temple Pilots, Tesla, Ronnie Milsap, Monte Montgomery and many more.

The NHL's Dallas Stars have been using Zack King songs for years both at Dallas' American Airlines Center during home games as well as in advertising and promotion for the team. Most recently, the band's single "What Do You Say" is being used by CBS Television in Dallas/Fort Worth to promote current programming. Their song "Big Plan In The Southland" is the theme song for CBS' DFW Outdoorsman. The band has also released four successful Christmas Classics in their own unique "unplugged" style.

The Zack King Band brings their fun stories and "unplugged" show to the Zin Zen Wine Bistro.

Shane Frame is a Texas singer songwriter and multi instrumentalist from McKinney Texas. His back story is filled with experiences touring across the country performing and penning songs in Nashville with some of the best songwriters the music industry has to offer.

A 5 year old boy, the Ed Sullivan Show, and the Beatles. For me that was a recipe that stirred up a passion that to this day burns deep in my soul. Music consumed my life as a child and as an adult. I am one of the blessed few fortunate enough to make it my profession for so many years. It has taken me to places I never dreamed as well as taken me back to times I will never forget.

After 20 years in the music business, working and living in Nashville Tennessee, I relocated back to Texas and went into semi retirement to focus on a family and a business career. I am very blessed to have partnered up with two of the most awesome souls on the planet, George Fuller and Maylee Thomas, to establish The Guitar Sanctuary and Performance Academy in McKinney Texas. The worlds coolest boutique guitar shop and music school. There I am able to share my passion and experience for music with up and coming artist through mentoring and performance programs. I still perform weekly in the McKinney, Allen, Plano, & Frisco Texas doing my originals and unique unplugged versions of songs that keep us young.

I've been fortunate enough to be involved with and learn from some of the most talented musicians Dallas has to offer.

It all started on the hearth of my childhood home in Mesquite, Texas. Although, I was never actually a 'Skeeter', like my grandparents, my parents and my brother...and I moved to Carrollton, TX when I was very young, I claim Mesquite as "the place I grew up".

As a child between the ages of 6-8, I would put a Crystal Gayle or Linda Ronstadt ALBUM on the turn table, stand on my hearth with my jump rope in hand (my Mic) and perform the entire album, both sides, at least twice.

My parents and my older brother were big musical influences for me. My Dad played guitar and sang with Mom beside him singing harmony. Mom grew up playing gospel songs on piano at the churches where her Daddy would preach. Brother played a little drums in the living room and a little guitar. I sang.

From the time I was old enough to sing it's ALL I EVER wanted to do. But, it wasn't until I was 22 that I ever really tried to seek out the opportunity to sing live. That's when a very patient man by the name of Robert Lee Kobb came into my life and gave me the chance I had so wanted. I say 'patient' because when I started trying to perform live I was really BAD! But Robert Lee taught me the ropes of the business and lucky for me, my local music career had begun.

We do acoustic classic and modern rock with a very eclectic mix of music in between.
